Suit Against the Consolidated Virginia Management for an Accounting.

A complaint filed in the Twelfth District Court by John H. Burke against James. G Flood, John W. Mackay, James G. Fair, Soloman Heydenfeldt, Charles H. Fish, George B. Wells, Edward Barron, Cornelius O'Conner, Consolidated Virginia Mining company, Pacific mill and mining company, Virginia and Gold Hill Water company, and Nevada bank, of San Francisco, sets forth that the suit is brought by the plaintiff as a stockholder of the Consolidated Virginia; that the defendants have through illegal contracts with one and another realized profits to the amount of $85,634,338, which belongs to the stockholders of the Consolidated Virginia company, from the following sources: By profits on milling, $3,285,270; by misappropriations of slimes and tailings, $20,000,000; by illegal dealings in mining ground, $10,469,068; by profits on wood and lumber, $1,000,000; by profits on supply of water, $20,000; by dealing with Nevada bank, $700,000; by commissions on purchase of supplies, $200,000. The complaint avers that the Consolidated Virginia mining company have refused to commence suit for the recovery of these sums, and that the 540,000 shares comprising the capital stock of the company is owned by persons who are scattered throughout the world, so they can not join with plaintiff, but this includes all the other stockholders. In the prayer of the complainant it is asked that Messrs. Fish, Heydenfeldt, Wells and O'Conner be removed from the office of directors of the Consolidated Virginia company; that Messrs. Mackay, Fair, Flood, Wallace, Barron and W. S. O'Brien, deceased, account for the profits made by them as directors of the Nevada bank and for all the capital stock illegally issued to them; that they restore all moneys received by them as commissions on purchases made by the company and that each of the defendants, Mackay, Flood, Heydenfeldt, Fish, Wallace, Wells, Barron and O'Conner be adjudged responsible for the wrongful acts of his contractors, or which by his negligence he enabled them to commit, and restore such moneys and property as shall be found to be due from his co-trustees.—S. F. Bulletin.

THEY HAD COPPERED THE BULL. A slim and sleek-haired theological student from Massachutetts was recently invited to preach before a Texas congregation. He happened, however, to begin his sermon by stating the hitherto accepted zoological fact that the "lion was the king of beasts," an injudicious remark which so inflamed the congregation (which had been reduced to the status of a bursted community by playing the lioness open and coppering the bull at the tournament the Sunday before) that the deacons took him out and hung him on a pecan tree, as a mark for the Sunday school scholars to practice at with their little revolvers. Then a grizzled old circuit rider happened along and preached a stirring discourse from the words: "The devil goeth about like a mad steer, seeking whom he may born."

A Boston paper says; "A butterfly was caught at the South End yesterday." It may be safe enough to catch a butterfly at the south end, but when you go to grab a wasp, you want to catch it at the northeasterly end, shifting westerly toward the head.

PLATFORMS.

There will be an unusually large crop of platforms this year. The Democracy will fashion theirs upon the old model—"The Republicans did it." "The Democracy of Pennsylvania unanimously declare that the Republican party, its measures and its men, are responsible for the present financial distress, and the misery and want that now exist. It has had control of the legislation of the country, and has enacted and perpetrated a policy that has enriched the few and impoverished the many. Its system of finance has been one of favors to moneyed monopoly, of unequal taxation of classes, of high rates of interest, and of remorseless contraction of the currency, which has destroyed every enterprise that give employment to labor. Its present hold upon Federal power was secured by fraud, perjury and forgery. Its laws are unjust and its practices immoral. They distress the people and destroy their substance. The only remedy for these evils is in an entire change of policy and the dethronement of those in power, and we resolve that further contraction of the volume of United States legal tender notes is unwise and unnecessary. They should be received for customs duties and reissued as soon as received. Gold, silver and United States legal tender notes at par therewith are a just basis for cirulation."

That is the same old two and sixpence Sammy Tilden cry. Also a manifest attempt to usurp the position now occupied by Republicans as the authors of certain and just beneficial legislation. Had these carpenters simply said that the Democracy, of Pensylvania are unanimously opposed to the Republican party, the platform would have been shorter and equally expensive. The Democracy is in a sad plight, it must still oppose Republicans, but sees that the people will endorse Republican principles. Nothing can daunt the Democracy save succes. Our friends will not be daunted this year.

THE HOPPER MUST GO.

Dan. de Quille says he has received a letter from Renoites, asking a remedy for grasshoppers. Considering that Long valley and other localities are threatened, we publish the reply. It will be remembered that Dan was the inventor of the celbrated cure for the worms, which attracted so much attention about fifty years ago. He now proposes to apply the same principle to the extermination of grasshoppers. Dan says:

"We hasten to reply. Our friends in the valley of the Truckee may have forgotten the fact, but a few years since, when a devastating army of "hoppers" threatened Washoe valley, the rapacious hordes were beaten back, smiling fields continued to smile, and a bountiful harvest made glad the hearts and filled the barns and pockets of the horny-handed granger. This victory over the hopper was achieved through a novel plan of attack suggested by us the moment we were made aware of the impending invasion. In accordance with our advice the yeomen and yeowomen of the valley, to a yeo, strapped fire extinguishers on their backs and went out to meet the invading army of hoppers. Confidently, carelessly, and with blare of trumpets and clashing of cymbals, the hopper army advanced, led on by the old he hopper of them all, who stood as high as a horse. Suddenly, along their whole line, at a given signal, the people of valley blazed away with their Babcocks. The old boss hopper gave a sneeze and a snort, then turned tail and fled toward the hills with all his legions thundering after him. What do the National Grasshopper Commissioners know about grasshoppers? Grasshoppers are the last thing they are likely to bother about. Strap on your Babcocks and go for the hoppers like men. Don't fool away precious time with the National Grasshopper Commissioners, or the National Bedbug Commissioners, or any other commission of national asses. To arms! to arms! Charge your Babcocks, then charge your foes!

The County and State Central Committee wing of the Workingmen's party have issued an address to the people, ignoring Kearney, and urging the co-operation of all interior organizations.

SIERRA VALLEY NOTES.

Editor Gazette:—It commenced raining yesterday, and is raining now—a God-send for the grain fields of Sierra valley.

The second complimentary benefit and strawberry festival which the good people of this valley have given came off last Friday evening at Randolph, and was a social and financial success. Both of these benefits gave Rev. S. Monsoe Hubbard $190, for which he desires me to return his heartfelt thanks. When Mr. Hubbard came to Loyalton, some six months ago, to try the health-giving climate of this valley, he agreed to stay six months, provided his health would permit. But he has improved so fast that he has concluded to remain here another six months.

The "denominational war" is over, and we look forward to months of useful labor among the earnest workers of this beautiful valley, and the upbuilding of all its social and religious interests, expecting that in the future, as in the past, victory will crown our efforts.

Mr. C. C. Huntly, who was thrown from a buggy three weeks since, is able to be about town on crutches.

Mr. Encoe, merchant here, who was also thrown from his wagon two weeks ago, while on his way to Virginia city is convalescent.

Mr. Hiram Lewis and family, old residents of Loyalton, have gone to Oregon to remain a few weeks.

Prof. Hakes and family, who have resided here for several years, have removed to Oakland.

It is a general time of good health in the valley, and all interests, financial, social and religious, are usually prosperous.

Mr. Marsh, of Reno, has sold several of the New Era organs, in Loyalton and will doubtless dispose of several more of these superb instruments the coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Anderson leave Loyalton this week for Webber lake to get ready to entertain the many tourists who will visit that gem of lakes, and enjoy the hospitality of their pleasant home.

PECULIAR.

Loyalton, May 20th.

A PROMISING SPECULATION.

Leon McL. Baldwin and William Partridge, the well-known mill men, have bought the slums and tailings of the old Parke, Manhattan and Tamerlic mills, in Washoe canyon, and are erecting a mill between Washoe and Steamboat to work them. There are between 250,000 and 300,000 tons in the lot, and it will take three or four years to do the job. Mr. Partridge is one of the best amalgamators in the State; he has had several years experience in working tailings, and if any one can make a speculation of that kind pay, he can. A, J. Tyrrell, of the Union Iron Works in this city, is interested in the enterprise. These tailings are the residue of the ore crushed in the early days of Washoe, when the yield seldom came within forty per cent. of the assay value, and they are consequently much richer than the tailings and slums from the ore extracted of late years. —Virginia Chronicle.

Messrs. Baldwin and Partridge have purchased the necessary lumber and it is on the ground. Work will be prosecuted vigorously and we hope successfully.

RANDALL SEES GRANT LOOMING UP.

Speaker Randall affims positvely that the investigation did not mean that Hayes was to be put out and Tilden put in. It was idiotic to talk of unseating Hayes. The committee will report in three weeks. It will simply gather and crystallize the evidence which is familiar already, and will place it on the enduring records of Congress as a vindication of the conduct of the Democracy during the canvass. He had incidentally remarked that General Grant would be the next Republican condidate for President.

Probably the most pitable sight in the world, is that of the average Democratic Statesman of to-day as he returns to rest, taking another hitch in his night shirt to keep it around his shrinking form, and sneaking into bed with the fear of Grant constantly before his eyes. It never rains but it pours. Whiskey has gone up. Tilden will prattle, and Grant still lives. The Democratic tiger has had a fit.

A resolution was adopted in the House of Representatives Wednesday extending the power of the Potter Investigating Committee to any State where there may be well-grounded allegations of fraud.

Tax-Payers' Meeting.

The tax-payers of Washoe county are requested to meet at the District Court room, in Reno, on Friday evening, May 24th, at 7:30 P. M. The object of the meeting will be to take some decisive action upon the two grand jury reports made by representatives from your ranks, and systematically ignored by the county officials. Matters of vital importance to the county will come before you, and your attention will be invited to affairs which nearly concern every good citizen who has regard for economical and efficient county government. It is sincerely hoped that Washoe's tax-payers, the men who pay for the grave abuses now practiced, will attend in force and demand their correction.

Jottings.

—To-day has been the warmest of the season.

—String beans and green peas are found in our Market.

"Old shingles and things," of Camp 16, was in town yesterday.

—To-morrow the State Jockey Club meet in Virginia City.

—A telegram awaits Mrs. W. J. Marshall at the Western Union telegraph office.

—Beamer and his wagon load of tramps are working on the road leading to Steamboat.

—Ed Maples is doing well at the county hospital, but has not yet a sure lease on life.

—Our markets are now supplied with fine trout. It is quoted at 14c buying and 16c per pound selling.

—Ida Pratt gives notice elsewhere that she will on and after date attend to her own business in person.

—The Hebrew Society, known as Chebra Brith Sholan, to-day purchased a burial ground of Wm. Sanders and had it surveyed.

—The case of Gilson and Barber vs. Price still claims the attention of the District Court. The case will probably close to-morrow.

—Mr. H. N. Riggins has taken into business a partner, Mr. C. Buckley. These gentlemen have a large, well-assorted stock of groceries and provisions. See their ad for particulars.

—The preliminary examination of Harry Dugan was not held to-day in the Justice Court, Mr. Dougan's attorneys being engaged in the District Court. The depositon of Spider alias Clifford was taken and Richardson adjourned shop for the day.

Correction.

The Meat Shipping Association of Reno closed its doors again owing to the failure of the company to successfully compete with California cattle men. They expect to "try, try again" at some future day.

This item in the Truckee Republican is apt to produce a wrong impression. There are never any shipments of beef, alive or dressed, at this season of the year from Nevada. It is only during the heated term that we cannot compete successfully with California.

NEW STORE.—Messrs. Weil & Bros. will open a cloak store on the east side of Virginia street about the first of June. Opposition in the line of ladies' apparel is the kind of opposition which they will tolerate. We cannot speak from experience, but we presume that the above announcement is not the most satisfactory to husbands.

Big Fight at Wadsworth.

A little stir was created in Wadsworth the other day by a first-class fight between one Clum, a painter, and a Mr. Rhodes, of poor reputation—both residents of that peaceable burg.

They got on a drunk, and not finding anything better to do, quarreled and had a fisticuff. Clum called for quarters and was sponged off. Both men separated for a time, and all might have run smoothly, but Rhodes wanted to more severely punish Clum, and so hunted the painter and inaugurated another fight. Clum in the meantime found an old pistol which he loaded with cartridges designed for a different patent revolver. In vain did Clum snap his gun at Rhodes' stomach. No ball would escape the cylinder chamber. At last Clum clubbed his assailant with the pistol until he left him for dead upon the field of battle. Clum then left town and has since not been heard from. Rhodes is recovering from his severe beating and peace prevails in our sister town.

A Reno Merchant Driven Out by Vigilantes.

M. D. Cohn, manager of the Eastern branch of Cohn & Isaacs' White House, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon He was driven out of Reno by a vigilance committee, who could not understand how he could afford to sell goods so much cheaper than the other houses in town, and thought he must have been swindling some large wholesale firm. Mr. Cohn said that his only secret was small profits and fair dealing, but the vigilantes claimed that he was actually selling below cost. Mr. Cohn will return to Reno this morning and try to placate the vigilantes by giving them a suit each at a small advance over the rate of freight.—Virginia Chronicle.

Mr. Cohn has returned and had an interview with the prominent 601's. He offered this simple plea in defense: "Gentlemen, I do not own the Nevada bank, neither am I a swindler, and yet I shall continue to sell at bed-rock prices. Watch me."

GREY AND ISAACS.—Messrs. Grey & Isaacs, one of the most enterprising dry goods firms that we have ever known, insert an advertisement in another part of this paper, which, if we said not a word in their behalf, would of itself bespeak of their business tact and consumate mercantile finesse. These gentlemen have built up a large trade in our city, and by reason of their large stock of goods. They saw our wants in their line of business and placed at our doors a large and admirably selected assortment of everything in the dry goods line. When business is not active with them, others are often loud in their complaints, not so with Messrs. Grey & Isaacs. They resort to means of bringing their business up to its proper standard. Look at their double half-column and, dear reader, you find one of the keys to business success. We then know where you will go, and, if you are in business, what you will do.

DISTINGUISHED TOURISTS.—John Watson, Earl of Earnock, John S. Hendrie, Mrs. Wm. Orr, of Buffalo, W. H. Snow, of Detroit, and W. K. Muir and wife of Detroit, Michigan, arrived this morning in a special car from San Francisco. All save Mr. Snow visited the Comstock to-day. This evening the party will return and start for the East. Mr. Muir is general manager of the Canada Southern railroad. Mr. Snow is also connected with the same road. This party has spent several weeks in California, visiting the Yosemite, southern and western California, and in fact all points of interest in our sister State. One of the party is worth about forty million dollars. All of them are persons of affluence. Mr. Snow paid his compliments to Reno to-day and will long remember our riverside town.

ELEGANT SPECIMENS.—We saw this morning several of the finest silver ore specimens that nature produces. Mr. W. R. Chamberlain received from San Francisco six or seven exquisite silver ores from Stonewall mine in Arizona. A gentleman who has just returned from Arizona says that the silver ores from the Arizona mines are generally very rich, but that the ledges are small, near the surface and soon run out.

SELF-BINDER.—Inquire of Mr. C. W. Perry, at J. L. McFarlin's blacksmith shop, for Osburne's self-binding harvester. Mr. Perry is also agent for several first class mowers and reapers. He is a gentleman and his machines will do what he claims for them. Farmers will do well to address a line to him for circulars and prices.

Meeting To-night.

The taxpayers' meeting for this evening gives every indication of a lively time. Your reporter is informed that both sides are preparing statements, and matters of the highest interest will be presented by the parties directly interested.

Every man in this county takes an interest in its affairs. There are different views entertained of the manner in which the objects sought may be accomplished, but the majority hold, as we take it, that an investigation of county affairs is a matter of pressing importance. Both grand juries made assertions and stated facts and figures which warrant fuller and more satisfactory action than has yet been taken of the affairs and officers of whom complaint is made. We are not convinced that an irreparable injury has been done to this county, but there is sufficient material on hand to demand that some disposition be made of it. Our fee laws are sadly defective and should be amended and made more explicit. To this defect we believe the errors alleged to have been committed are very largely tracable. To-night a fair statement of the case by the Committees of the two last grand juries, and by the officers accused of misdemeanor in office, will enable those who shall attend this meeting to gain a clearer insight into the acts of our county officials. Therefore we urge our citizens to be present this evening at the District Court room, and seek the truth which all wish to elicit in regard to the important interests concerned.

DEPARTED THIS LIFE.—A tramp yesterday morning fell off the breakbeam of one of the overland coaches this side of Sacramento. Both legs were sacraficed and the county coroner was furnished a job. The place which knew him once is now vacant for another of the genus tramp. Another exception to Greeley's advice. It does not always pay to go west unless you have an eye for inquest notoriety and the coroner's pocket.

"UNCLE JOSHUA" COMING.—To-morrow evening Denman Thompson will appear at Smith's Academy of Music as Joshua Whitcomb. He will be well supported, and will present our citizens with an entertainment of first-class merit. Our citizens have had the pleasure of a number of excellent performances recently, and now comes one of the best for to-morrow night. "Uncle Josh will draw a full house.

PERSONAL.—Miss Julia Allen and Mrs. John Hobart arrived this morning from Santa Rosa. Miss Allen has been on a long visit to her parents, who reside in Santa Rosa. Mrs. Hobart took a visit to that pleasant little town for her health and now returns to Reno for her health and to her own pleasant home.

SWINE FATALITY.—A good many hogs are dying on the meadows. The cause of this is not known. As this swine fatality is confined to a few ranches, it may arise from poor feed or some other special cause. Dan De Quille would suggest Babcock's fire extinguisher.

JUST THE THING.—A neatly dressed man can take some comfort with himself and at the same time be favorably regarded by his friends. It is true economy to buy good clothing, and of a style in conformity with the prevailing patterns. The next question is, where shall one get, during these hard times, a good article of underwear, business or dress suit, which gives satisfaction in price and quality of goods? Messrs. Cohen & Isaacs, at the Branch White House, on Commercial Row, next door to the postoffice, is your place, gentlemen. They have all the latest styles of men's and boy's clothing, and at all prices and sizes. Their stock is both large and complete. A man can go into their store and get a full outfit, hat, suit of outer and underwear, and boots or shoes as he may prefer. These gentlemen have just received a full stock of spring and summer clothing, and defy competition in their selling prices, as well as in the quality of goods which they sell. 4 28 tf.

RETURNED.—Mrs. Julia J. Prescott has just returned from San Francisco, after a carful inspection of all the latest novelties in the line of fancy goods and millinery. Mrs. Prescott congratulates herself that her labors to supply the ladies of Reno and vicinity with the latest styles have been appreciated, and her recent visit of four weeks to the city of San Francisco has been purposely prolonged that she might study and select the exquisite spring and summer styles which she now offers to her patrons. Her prices are lower than ever, to suit the hard times, and the goods are now displayed at her establishment, on Commercial Row. The ladies should call. 4-4tf
